A Japanese was killed by giant pow-had exploded in the usual manner, but the other had burst only when he came to see what was the matter with it.

The plasterers and decorators are hard at work in the new Wailuku Union church. As soon as they are through, the memorial windows will be placed in position, and the finishing wood work of the interior completed. The furniture that was ordered in May through the Alexander and Baldwin New York office, has been three weeks on its way, and should arrive by the middle of November.

The followers of Confucius among the Chinese in Wailuku gave a dinner in honor of the birth of their patron, November 14. A number of the prominent residents were present, and a sumptuous repast was spread before their guests by the hosts. The teachings of the great Confucius, and the gradual awakening of China, were the themes which drew forth some well chosen remarks by the speakers after the banquet.

Kaui Harbor Question.

LIHUE, October 24.—The surveyors who have been engaged in working out our harbor system for some time, will soon have finished their work and gone away. These experts have worked away quietly and unobtrusively, getting all the data required by Uncle Sam, which will have much to do with the final decision of the location of the port of entry for Kauai. They have worked faithfully and have made a good impression on the Nawiliwili people, whose courtesy has been highly appreciated by these men.

Church Convention.

During several days of last week the Lihue church has been a center of much activity consequent on the meeting of the association of the churches of Kauai together with the Sunday schools and C. E. societies connected therewith.

The first steps were taken preparatory to the coming of the annual association to Kauai next summer by apportioning to the various churches their quota to be raised for entertainment of this body, and by appointing a committee to be responsible for the music on that occasion.

A request came from the Kapaa Church for permission to solicit funds throughout the island for the construction of a suitable parsonage at Kapaa to cost about $800.

There was considerable discussion on the subject of church yard cemeteries. There was a pretty common consensus of opinion that the church could not fairly be expected to bear this burden without assistance.

Under the head of support of the ministers Rev. W. B. Oleson, secretary of the Hawaiian Board, assured the association that it had been his constant effort to raise the salaries of the ministers to a minimum of $400 a year.

Rev. J. M. Lydgate called attention to the serious inroads made in our population by tuberculosis, and suggested simple measures of prevention.

Mr. Oleson gave a very graphic and interesting account of the pagan "Darkness to Daylight" witnessed last summer in Boston by many thousands which represented the coming of Christianity to Hawaii.

The minister's class, conducted by Mr. Lydgate, awakened a good deal of interest in the criticism of the sermon outlines placed upon the blackboard and commented on one by one.

Perley Horne, principal of Kaneohe mecha, was an interested visitor and in response to an invitation to address the Association did so most happily. David Lyman of Koloa also addressed the Association in Hawaiian.

Social Items.

A delightfully informal affair was the reception Thursday night tendered Captain and Mrs. John August Sal-etzke of the Defiance, now lying at Port Allen. The hosts were Captain Geo. B. Leavitt and Richard L.
Hughes, and able entertainers they proved themselves to be. The large lanel of Captain Leavitt's cottage, swept by the cool breezes of Hannapee Bay, proved a delightful place for dancing, while cards were enjoyed by those whose inclinations lay in that direction.

Those present were Captain and Mrs. Saletzke, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Hastie, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Roendahl, Misses Mabel, Janet, Marion and Malle Hastie, Messrs. Bole, Leavitt, Hughes, Miller and Lyle.

Captain and Mrs. John August Sal-etzke, of the schooner Defiance, entertained a circle of Eleale friends on board ship at Port Allen Sunday afternoon, and those who were brave enough to risk the danger of "mal-de mer" enjoyed the afternoon immensely. In spite of the day, the younger spirits would not be curbed, and dancing was indulged in on the spacious deck. Those who enjoyed the hospitality were Captain and Mrs.
Saletzke, Misses Mabel, Marion and Janet Hastie, Leona Laube, Nora Harrley and Messrs. Leavitt, Miller and Hughes.

The McBryde Pedro Club and friends were entertained at the Eleale home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Roen-dahl Saturday evening October 14 this being one of several delightful affairs given in honor of Mrs. John August Saletzke and Captain Saletzke, of the Defiance, now lying at Port Allen.

Miss Marion Hastie and Mr. Miller were the proud recipients of their respective prizes. The evening's pleasure was enhanced by instrumental solos from Mr. Roendahl and a vocal solo by Mr. Hughes. Those present were Captain and Mrs. J. A. Saletzke, Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Hastie, H. H. Brodie, K. Roendahl and C. B.
Morse, Misses Leona Laube, Nora Hartley, Mabel Hastie, Marion Hastie and Janet Hastie, Captain Geo. B.
Leavitt, Messrs. Moeller, Hughes, Miller and others.

There was a very picturesque and animated party on the Parsonage lawn on Thursday afternoon last. Mrs. Lyd-gates had invited her neighbors to afternoon tea—to meet Rev. Wm. B. Oleson and Mr. Perley Horne.

GO DOWN TO HALEIWA.

If you have never been to Haleiwa, go down this week while the moon is keeping up her licks. The place is beautiful, always, but especially is it delightful at full moon. The rooms are excellent, free of mosquitoes and airy through good ventilation, and the cuisine and service is superior.
There is no pleasanter place within telephone call at which to spend the week-end. Next Saturday will be about right for all enjoyment. Return Sunday night by train, which leaves from the front of the hotel, and you will ride along the beach with the moon shining on the waves as they dash on the shore against the snarled lava rocks.

ENGLISH.

A German, who had come to America to master our language, was being shown behind the scenes of a vaudeville theater by one of his American friends. "That man," said the American, indicating an actor with a wave of his hand, "is taking off his make-up for another take-off." The German departed sputtering.
